

David BERMAN brief CV:

Professor David Berman is Deputy Head of Physics and Astronomy at Queen Mary University of London. Before joining Queen Mary he was an advanced research fellow at the University of Cambridge and completed several years as a postdoctoral researcher at the universities of Jerusalem, Utrecht and Groningen. He obtained his PhD in Mathematics in 1998 from the University of Durham. In 1994 he graduated with 1st class honors from University of Manchester.

He serves on numerous strategy and funding panels for UK research councils and is also known for his extensive outreach work. His research over the last ten years has been to develop extended field theories and generalised geometry (a topic that with Malcolm Perry and others he began in 2010).